

History Undergraduate Journal

HUGS Journal 2017-2018 Submission Guideline

To be eligible to submit an article to That's Historic! you must meet the following requirements:

- You are an undergraduate student
- Must be willing to have your work reviewed and altered to meet the standards of the journal
- Must be willing to have your work made public online

Submission Guidelines:

- Your paper or digital project should meet the following guidelines unless special exceptions have been made
- Article must be at an excellent standard of writing, otherwise it may not be accepted.
- Submissions can be coursework or personal work
- Time period: 500 C.E to present day
- Word length: Roughly between 1200 - 2500 words for an essay
- File format: Work must be submitted to the journal as a .doc(x) to ensure access to editing
- Citation Style: Chicago Manual of Style, any edition

Submissions Must Include:

- A photo that successfully captures the essence of the article submitted
- An abstract between 150-300 words describing the article

If your submission is accepted you will be asked to provide a short bio to be published on the website along with your article

Thank you very much for considering a submission to
That's Historic! We look forward to reading your work!